No Animal Testing Statement

Products: Perfumes and Skincare Products by Belle'Botanique

Belle'Botanique Pty Ltd. is not in the practice of performing or commissioning animal testing on its finished products and either depends on or actively evaluates the ingredients of its products through non-animal testing methods and through computational (predictive) toxicology programs.

However, we are not responsible if some ingredients used in our products have been subjected to animal testing by the academic community, government agencies, or within the cosmetic and chemical industry.

Sincerely,

Manoj Kumar Jain
